NFL HIGHLIGHTS

Broncos win 8th straight

Wil Lutz kicked five field goals, including a 35-yard winner as time expired Sunday, pushing the Broncos past the Chiefs 22-19 in Denver for their eighth consecutive victory.

The Broncos (9-2) all but buried the Chiefs (5-5) in the AFC West, which the latter has won ever year since 2016. Chiefs coach Andy Reid fell to 27-5 after a bye week, counting the playoffs and his time with the Eagles.

Bo Nix set up the winning kick with a 32-yard pass to Troy Franklin that got the Broncos to the Chiefs' 15-yard line with under a minute remaining.

Patrick Mahomes gave Kansas City its only lead on a 21-yard touchdown toss to Travis Kelce — the veteran tight end's 84th career TD, one more than previous Chiefs franchise record-holder Priest Holmes. That put the Chiefs up 19-16, but Harrison Butker's extra point was blocked by Frank Crum.

The Broncos tied it at 19 on Lutz's 54-yarder with 4:10 remaining. Their defense forced the Chiefs to go three-and-out when Ja'Quan McMillian sacked Mahomes on third-and-10 from the Chiefs' 36. The Broncos chewed up the final 2:59 by driving 58 yards in 10 plays. They won their 11th game in a row at Empower Field.

Bills 44, Buccaneers 32

Josh Allen threw for three touchdowns and rushed for three more, the last on a rugged nine-yard run with 2:35 left that secured a victory by host Buffalo (7-3) over Tampa Bay (6-4).

Allen became the first player with two games of three TDs passing and rushing. He did it last year in a 44-42 loss at the Rams. This time, Allen outdueled fellow 2018 first-round draft pick Baker Mayfield in a shootout that featured nine lead changes.

Ravens 23, Browns 16

Tight end Mark Andrews ran 35 yards for the go-ahead touchdown with 2:31 remaining, and visiting Baltimore (5-5) rallied past Cleveland (2-8) to spoil She-deur Sanders' NFL debut.

Sanders entered in the third quarter after Dillon Gabriel suffered a concussion. He went 4-for-16 for 47 yards with an interception and was sacked twice, finishing with a 13.5 passer rating.

Jaguars 35, Chargers 6

Host Jacksonville (6-4) bounced back from the worst collapse in franchise history by thumping Los Angeles (7-4) behind rushing touchdowns from Travis Etienne, Trevor Lawrence and rookie Bhaysul Tuten.

Panthers 30, Falcons 27 (OT)

Bryce Young threw for a franchise-record 448 yards with three TDs and Ryan Fitzgerald kicked a 28-yard field goal in overtime to lift visiting Carolina (6-5) over reeling Atlanta (3-7).

Jets player shot in New York

Jets special-teams player Kris Boyd is in critical but stable condition at Manhattan's Bellevue Hospital after sustaining a gunshot wound to the abdomen at a Midtown restaurant early Sunday morning. The incident occurred shortly after 2 a.m. at the Sei Less restaurant on West 38th Street. No arrests have been made.

Bears tight end Cole Kmet, trying to elude Vikings linebacker Eric Wilson in the fourth quarter, had five receptions for 45 yards Sunday. ELLEN SCHMIDT/GETTY IMAGES

MAKING THE GRADE BY STEVE GREENBERG

QUARTERBACK: B-

Caleb Williams started with early overthrows and finished only 16-for-32 for 193 yards and a 68.9 passer rating, but his stat line was hurt by wide-receiver drops, and — far more important in a choppy game like this one — he (1) avoided any serious screwups and (2) outplayed Vikings counterpart J.J. McCarthy all game. An early spin-away from blitzing safety Jay Ward led to a nice run that opened up the Bears' first scoring drive. Downfield throws over the middle were on target all day (see: drops). Wait, does the Bears' epic four-play, nine-yard march to set up a field goal at the end count as yet another game-winning drive for the QB?

TIGHT ENDS: A

Between them, Cole Kmet and Colston Loveland were targeted nine times for eight catches, totaling 85 yards. Kmet, especially, was a tank after the catch, leaving cornerback Isaiah Rodgers and linebackers Eric Wilson and Andrew Van Ginkel on the wrong end of collisions. Loveland had a 24-yard catch, running through two would-be tacklers for a key first down. Loveland and Durham Smythe had killer blocks on the seven-yard run by D'Andre Swift that set up the walk-off field goal.

OFFENSIVE LINE: B

When they were needed most, the big uglies delivered in the run game. On the same seven-yard run by Swift, right guard Jonah Jackson pancaked Vikings lineman Jalen Redmond one-on-one, a sight the Bears no doubt will celebrate with multiple rewinds in film study. Williams was sacked twice, both coming on the same series to start the fourth quarter, but the second sack was on him completely for rolling directly into the outside rush of Van Ginkel.

DEFENSIVE LINE: C-

There wasn't nearly enough pressure on McCarthy — though Grady Jarrett bulled up the middle and got close a couple of times, once forcing an underthrow that was intercepted — and there wasn't much resistance against the run. The D-line should send McCarthy a nice gift basket for spraying incompletions all over the field out of his own generous nature.

SECONDARY: B-

Cornerback Nahshon Wright's interception in the end zone, on which he high-pointed the ball right in front of wide receiver Jordan Addison, was one of the Bears' plays of the year. Safety Kevin Byard III also had a pick because that's just what he does. But McCarthy also missed open receivers and got unlucky with some terrible drops by his guys, and Wright completely lost Addison on the Vikings' go-ahead touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

SPECIAL TEAMS: B+

Cairo Santos' fourth-quarter miss from 45 yards almost ruined the day, but Devin Duvernay's 56-yard kick return to set up Santos' winning boot was at least a 7½ on a scale of 1 to Devin Hester. A tip of the helmet to Josh Blackwell for his kick-out block on that runback. The coverage units still need a lot of work.
